Introduction to PhD toolbox course: BASIC MODULE

Marco Chiapello

27/03/2017

Center for Proteomics
University of Cambridge
mc983@cam.ac.uk

Course goals

1. Understand the principles of Reproducible research

Course goals

1. Understand the principles of Reproducible research
2. Learn severel tools to work reproducibly
    2.1 `UNIX`
    2.2 `R`
    2.3 Markdown
    2.4 Version control

Course goals

1. Understand the principles of Reproducible research
2. Learn severel tools to work reproducibly
   2.1 `UNIX`
   2.2 `R`
   2.3 Markdown
   2.4 Version control
3. Discover the beauty of Software and Data carpentry

Tools for the course:

- GitHub repository <small>(where all the material is stored)</small>
  - PhD Tolbox course repository

Tools for the course:

- GitHub repository (where all the material is stored)
  - PhD Tolbox course repository
- Sticky notes

Tools for the course:

- GitHub repository (where all the material is stored)
    - PhD Tolbox course repository
- Sticky notes
- Etherpad (for collaborative discussions)
    - Etherpad link